

THE WAR DRAFT SAYS WM. H. DOBBS

Former Employee of The Argus,
Now in the Trenches in France,
Says Black Rodents Are Large &

William Henry Dobbs, former employee of the Argus, who is now with the 20th Infantry, now in the front-line trenches in France, writes an interesting letter about his experiences in active service. Dobbs says all are being well fed and when they are not fighting they amuse themselves playing baseball, cards and checkers. He says it does not get dark until 9 p.

Fighting Bravely and Successfully
Doubia writes, "We are fighting bravely and successfully with our allies and driving the enemy back. Last time I was on guard in a trench with my gun when a Boche started snoring and I shot on top of our last line trench. I look so strong."

Affraid of French Raids

"I am once again afraid of French raids," said a German soldier who was captured by the British last night. "I have been told that I am one of the Germans who are being kept in large cages as robbers and thieves." He killed two with my hands. It is very hard. We must wait until we can get our things back and keep them safe. When we are all together, they will be a beautiful country and the French people and soldiers are not so bad."

NEWS FROM FORT DODGE

For the St. Louis Argosy.

The boys from the 2nd Ward have made good, some as corporals and sergeants and others. Corporal W. Smith is sergeant of the 1st Co. M. C. and Corporal J. C. "Clerk," Harold Marlow is corporal, Wm. Washington corporal, and Everett Lane is clerk at headquarters. So you see we are working hard and will continue to do so.

We are all well and glad to hear from all our friends. Everything here is so highly ~~much~~ watermelon, 1 cent a slice, and 10 cents, boys, 15 cents, pork chops 20 cents per side well. Keweenaw, the high cost of freshmeats we are doing well and all of us feel fine and get the Algas here on the grounds and that way we keep up with everything that happens in St. Louis.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Kinloch Park

The morning and evening services were largely attended. Being covenant day, the Holy Spirit, certainly was present. At three o'clock we attended the Women's Conv. Preach at the First Baptist Church, in Webster Groves. Our pastor, Rev. W. L. Johnson, delivered a powerful sermon. He took his text from John 4:23, "who says, 'Look on the earth, for they are already white, ready for the harvest.'"

WOMAN'S UNION AUXILIARY
The Women's Union Auxiliary held their meeting at South Avenue Baptist Church Sunday Sept. 1st at 2:30 p.m. The president was present after a long illness and enjoyed a glorious meeting. The collection was $12.57. The meeting will be at Bethel Baptist Church, Sunday, Sept. 8th. Mrs. A. A. Shivers, president; R. C. Baker, secretary.

SEVEN CHURCH BAPTIST UNION
The Seven Church Baptist Union met at 18th Street Baptist Church, Monday night, Sept. 5. Scripture read by Rev. Robertson. St. John 12. Prayer by Rev. Robertson. The next meeting will be for North Central Baptist Church, held with the Bethel Baptist Church, 729 South 10th Street, Sunday by Rev. Mitchell. Rev. J. W. Hall, president; A. Martin, secretary.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH
A cordial welcome was extended to all and was responded to by a record-breaking crowd all day. Each Sunday this big church is the coming church of the parish district. Many visitors were present Sunday. Pastor Harold preached a powerful sermon at 11 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Martin of Greenville, Miss., preached at 8 o'clock. Pastor Harold preached in Haden last Sunday at Corinthian Baptist Church. The civic league meets at the church Sunday night. Rev. A. P. Harold, pastor; Sister Mary Bowen, deaconess.

ST. PAUL A. M. E. NOTES

Dr. Richard from Atlanta filled the pulpit Sunday morning to the delight of all. Our beloved pastor, Dr. Johnson, had previously spoken of this eminent divine and we knew from his past experience that his preaching would be impregnable. The audience sat spellbound as Dr. Richard unfolded the truth which made all present rejoice. Sunday night at seven thirty, Dr. B. M. Jackson of Lawrence, Kansas, lectured on the importance of being serious about the work of the conference. His sermon was interesting. St. Paul was well taken care of all day by eminent preachers of the National Baptist convention. Dr. Johnson is having no doubts as to the success of his conference. The address is interesting to him as they did last year. Dr. Johnson has the credit of collecting more money in his year's time any pastor in the Missouri conference. The supply states his plans, advises his devotees that the members fall in line Sunday morning, he will bring a burning message well seasoned and those who miss the sermon will miss a religious treat. A special invitation to strangers.

DEMOCRACY
A Democracy is Founded Upon Equal Rights, Equal Duties and Equal Responsibilities For All Citizens.

"No man who looks down on his fellow-man is fit to govern him." — Moorfield Storey.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES
Since the world's conflict has become a big question, usually, and themselves between two fires. The customary phrases, describing what this war means to the people of this nation, seem to find no application to the colored man. So the speakers generally take up most of their time in apologizing for the wrongs perpetrated upon the colored people of this country by the whites; and in praising the loyalty of the Negro race. This, of course, is very embarrassing to speaker and hearers alike.

We are quite in sympathy with the members of our race who are placed in such embarrassing positions when called upon to speak to their own people. The leaders of the race who are patriotic, loyal, and faithful, to do all in their power to help in this great fight for democracy, by conversations, lectures or writings must either apologize for the wrongs done to their brothers or plead ignorance of the existing conditions. In either event, they are placed in a bad position.

"We want Uncle Sam to help us do more for our race by removing the many handicaps that we are compelled to work under. Unless we have misinterpreted the word 'Democracy,' it means equal rights, equal duties, and equal responsibilities for all citizens.

No man, who is a leader of the race, would dare say that the Negro is satisfied with anything less; even though we may be forced to accept the status of this country by the whites, we must let the world know that we are not satisfied.

YOU MUST REGISTER
The duty of the hour is that every colored man in the City of St. Louis should, by all means, have his name on the registration books as a citizen of this city and of the United States.

Persons of vital importance to the Negro race must be determined at the November election and you cannot play a man's part unless you are a qualified voter.

Remember: We have our friends to stand for their stand in favor of right and justice. We also have enemies to rebuke, those who have been unfair and unjust to the cause of right.

Remember: Thursday, September 19, is the day. The only one day you may go to the polls and have your name placed on the books.

It will be a crime to neglect this great duty and responsibility. You become one hundred per cent American when you are a voter. Let us unite in an effort for our common good. Let every fellow-fighter about it. No one will be excused. You cannot afford to be a slacker.
